DRESSING SACQUES

Splendid Styles and Little Prices.

Outing Flanel Sacques, polka dotted effects on black, blue and red grounds, loose front, neat collars and 81 00

Gelshas of plain color and striped outing Flannels, fancy borders 81.98 and frog fasteners.....

Eiderdown Sacques, with pretty collars, ribbon ties and crochet edge, any popular shade ... Dressing Sacques of fine French flan-nel, close fitted back, high collar, crocheted borders, a favorite style ...... 83.25

L. S. Ayres @ Co. Indiana's Greatest

Distributers of Dry Goods.

MANUFACTURER OF GRILLES.

a said for Body Brussels, and don't forget it-Ingrains, too-the old stand by. Come in at any time and we will give you a carpet talkillustrated.

Albert Gall

Carpets, Draperies, Wall Paper, 17 and 19 West Washington Street. Hardwood Floors Laid and Refinished.

Go to a Glove Store for Gloves.

OR the best wearing and cheapest Gloves and Mittens, lined or un-Always try our stock. They are

WITH PISTOLS

JAMES CAGE PROBABLY FATALLY HURT BY RICHARD PARKER.

Cage's Mother Also Shot in the Hand -Richard Kennedy Shot Michael Garvey.

A quarrel between James Cage and Richard Parker, colored, resulted yesterday morning in a shooting affray which may result in the death of Cage, who was sent to the City Hospital with a bullet hole through his right lung. Mrs. Cage, at whose home the trouble occurred, was shot in the band. Cage was writing a letter and Parker interfered. As if by previous agreement, both men drew revolvers and began firing at each other. Several other members of the family narrowly escaped injury. Mrs. Cage said her son was to blame for the shooting. Parker left the house and was caught about an hour later, as he was returning to the scene of the fight. He is charged with assault with intent to kill. Cage's condition last night was serious,

SHOT IN THE BACK.

Richard Kennedy Tried to Kill His Bartender, Michael Garvey.

Richard Kennedy, a saloon keeper at 544 West Maryland, was arrested yesterday afternoon and charged with attempting to kill Michael Garvey, his bartender.

Garvey was on the opposite side of the street from Kennedy's saloon when Kennedy rushed out of the door and called out that he intended to kill Garvey, whereupon he fired twice at him. The second bullet struck Garvey, who started to run, in the back, inflicting only a slight wound after through his suspenders, which were thick enough to retard the bullet. a little. Garvey said he was unable to understand Banks why Kennedy should shoot at him, as they had never had any trouble. People about the place said Kennedy had been drunk all morning.

ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Arrest of Michael Riley and Clarence Hufford.

Michael Riley, living at Seventeenth street and Columbia avenue, and Clarence Hufford, 1269 Park avenue, were arrested last night by Detectives Asch and Griffin passing of forged checks. Sunday went to Haggerty's saloon on Coavenue and secured $20 on a check. Later he met a man named Stock, with whom he was acquainted, and by him was introduced at the Grand Hotel, where a check for $23.60 was cashed. When the the signature purporting to be George W. Hufford, the father of the young man under arrrest, was a forgery. The men were found together last night and confessed to uttering and passing the checks. Hufford said he did the writing and Riley secured the money on them. When arrested they were driving about town in a rig hired with the money thus secured.

President Mitchell Here. President John Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, arrived in the city yesterday from Hazleton, Pa., where he has been gion began, and spent a few hours at head-He then left for his home a Spring Valley, Ill., and will return to headquarters after a few days' rest. President of the organization in the district for his tisfactor; manner in bringing about ; peaceful settlement of the wage question, whereby all secured a substantial increase as well as betterment of conditions generally. One was a silver cup presented by the Scranton, Pa., Elks and friends,

JOHN BANKS, A NOTORIOUS COLORED DEMOCRAT, ARRESTED.

Working Under Orders, He Attempted to Bribe a Republican Election Officer.

THE "ENDLESS CHAIN" SCHEME

BANKS ATTEMPTED TO GET HOLD OF A SIGNED BALLOT.

Conversation Between Banks and J. Wesley Bridges Taken Down by Expert Shorthand Man.

John Banks, a colored Democrat, was arrested, late yesterday afternoon, by Constables Hildebrand and Anderson, of Justice Nickerson's court, on a charge of attempting to bribe J. Wesley Bridges, Republican election judge of the sixteenth precinct of the First ward. Banks was held for trial, and his bond fixed at $1,000, which was furnished by William Flynn. The affidavit charges that Banks offered and promised to pay Bridges $50 for an original ballot to be taken from the rooms where the election in that precinct is to

Sunday afternoon Banks visited Bridges Wilton for richness and wear, and brought up the matter of securing Axminster has a depth of pile | the ballot, and an appointment was made that gives it a richness beyond for yesterday morning. The Republican the Wilton at first, but the great | county committee was advised, and Bridges carpet of carpets is the Wilton. | was instructed to proceed with the nego-There are good words to be tiations. Charles M. Glover, of the Indianapolis Gas Company, and Waiter N. Carpenter, a court stenographer, went to Bridges's place of business and concealed themselves where the conversation with Banks might be heard.

A VERBATIM REPORT. Mr. Carpenter secured a verbatim report of the conversation, which was transcribed

The following conversation between Banks and Bridges was taken down in shorthand by Mr. Carpenter, an expert:

Banks-Well, I come up prepared to do business, Wes.
Bridges-Well, all right. You see I have to keep shut up here to keep customers Banks-Well, I ain't been to bed yet. I went down to draw my salary.

Don't you think I know my business? Bill Merrett and Charley Hubbard and a whole lot of them five and ten-dollar gamblers are trying to do business. * * I never in my life seen people that has had as much experience as Hubbard and Mer-rett and them reople has, and claims to be so smart—they run down there to see Tag-gart. I never go to them fellows; they al-ways send for me. Bridges-Well, they realize that you are a valuable man to them, and they call Banks-Well, they realize this, they would not send for me if I wasn't a valuable man to them, and they know that I am of some little service to them. Well, seen this morning. Charley Hubbard-he seen this morning, Charley Hubbard—he goes down there and he says to Tom: "Tomorrow is election day." "Yes, how are you Charley?" Charley says: "I would like to have $5," and the damn fool just hands him out ten dollars, and Bill Merrett, he says: "I would like to have ten," and he hands him out the money. Well, I don't take nothing; if they offer me fifty I don't take it: I don't want it: all I wants is a take it; I don't want it; all I wants is a chance to do business; just let them give me a chance to make my own moneythat is all I want.

Bridges-Yes, that is right. Now, what scheme have you on foot to get this ballot that you are talking about? Banks-Here is all it is: I feel, and I al most know, that the Democratic party will be defeated; I feel positive of it. Now, here is all they are to do * * and that is to go to work and get a ballot and let me have it to work with-I will have to handle that ballot. * * * Now, I am by you as you are by me; you protect me and I protect you. I says, "All I want is fifty dollars. * * *"

Bridges-I guess you realize how serious this thing is, do you? Banks-Why, don't I realize that it is Bridges-That ballot will have to be stolen, and if I do a thing like that for you, it will be the first time in my life I have done anything dishonest, and I suppose those people will want some kind of evidence from you that I have got the money-a receipt, or something? Banks-I won't force you to sign a re ceipt; I won't force you to do that. Bridges-Well, what is your plan now?

WOULD GIVE MONEY. Banks-It is like this: When you get a ballot and deliver it to me I will give you the money. You see, I brought fifty with me-five, ten, twenty, twenty-five, thirty-five, forty, fifty. You see, I got the Bridges-That is the stuff. Now, that plan is-I suppose-Banks-Now, the scheme is . . . Bridges-Has Kramer got anything?

Banks-Kramer had money last year, but he hasn't got anything this year, . . and I was working right there myself. * * * Now, listen: I get - I spoke to you and asked you, through the telephone this morning, were you prepared to do business. * * * Bridges-Yes: I am prepared to do business, but it don't hurt to discuss affairs

Banks-Here is one thing-I want to be fair with you and I want to thoroughly understand you. Bridges-Yes, that is what I want. Banks-I go to work and say like this: Now. * * * What I want to say is that these people are all out for the money. Now, the thing is * * Bridges-I never got a political dollar in Banks-Is that so? Is your horse and buggy out there? Bridges-No.

to have you go over and see a bailot that has got your signature on it. Bridges-Is it a forgery, or is it my genuine signature? Banks-It is the real signature. You wrote it yourself. I wanted you to see it so bad last night that I couldn't hardly

* * Yes, it is the real thing, right on

Banks-Well, I just thought I would like

Bridges-They told me to write a plain nitial, or a comparatively plain initial, and . . . Now, you tell me exactly how the delivery of this money and the delivery of this ballot is to be arranged. Am I to give it to you directly, when I am in the election room, or will you get a chance to take this ballot from me directly? Possibly you will have some agent; that is, if the ballet is gotten, it will have to be gotten to you by some means or other, I suppose. Banks-I will tell you how we arrange that. Now, it is natural * * * and of . . . I will say good morning to you, and when I say good morning it won't be over five minutes until I walk back to the water closet, and you can go to the water closet and shake hands with me, and I will take the ballot from you and put the best way to do that. If you have any further scheme to suggest, why, just let me COULDN'T BE BEATEN. Bridges-That scheme could not be beaten, as far as I know. Of course, a man is bound to go to the water closet during the day some time. How will you arrange for the delivery of the balance of the the money into your hands. I think that is Banks-Well, this is the way I want to arrange that: When you give me the ballot I will hand you $50. . . Now, to show them that I am in good faith . . you know Polster is a dirty - nigger hater-what I call a rebel. He will want me to do certain things; he won't want me to do anything that he wouldn't do him-capital by Indiana m self. * Now, I won't go to work and business prompt att shake hands with you without I have 50 hast Market street.

in my hands. When I shake hands with you I will have that $50 in my hand. You might as well make that as somebody eise. Bridges-Yes, that is true enough; yet in a transaction of that kind there is an uncertainty, and hence a nervous strain on the system of both parties, because there is ish; that is, everything is in doubt; that is,

you are doubtful about getting the bal-

Banks-No, I am not; no, I am not-Bridges-And I am doubtful about getting the $50. These people may change their minds. You know they say that wise men change, fools never, and some fools may change pretty often. Now suppose they fall down on you, and you can't raise that $50-then what?

Banks-Oh, I have got it myself. Bridges-Now, you have the utmost conidence that these people will deliver you-Eanks-Yes, not only fifty, but five hun- PREDICTS dred if I need it. I can go in ten minutes to the Grand Hotel and get $500 to do business with-that is, if I want to go into business, open a saloon, or anything of that kind. There is no doubt about that; but these people are reaping the benefit of the harvest, and if I do say this myself, without boasting, any time that I go to Taggart, Stuckmeyer or Bell, or any of them fellows, and say, 'I want a hundred dollars,' I can get it that quick. If they haven't got it in their pockets, they give me a note so that I can get it. * * * That is the reason that I can go down there and get so many niggers out of jail. Why, no longer than day before yesterday I was down in court and stood good for a lot of niggers down there. * * A man that makes his word good with parties, naturally they will take a man's word. I have never forfelted my word in that courthouse in my life, and I have went down there and fixed up more straw bonds than any other colored man in this town-more straw bonds-and I will have that other Bridges-What time will you be around Banks-Oh, I will be around there good Bridges-You want this ballot as soon as possible, I suppose? Banks-Yes, as soon as I can get it, so . . Now, you see this ballot won't do will return to this city.

any good in any other precinct. I want to go to work like this; you understand, my meaning in this— * * *" the next minute, as long as they have asked you if you was ready to do busiless, and you said you was. Bridges-Well, I was prepared to give you a satisfactory answer. But I suppose you know the election laws.

CRAP GAME AND SALOON. Banks-Yes. * * * I am manager of the house, with the crap game and the saloon. * * * You see we run sometimes over $300 a week, and sometimes only $500

Bridges-Now about this ballot: Don't you know that the ballot must have the two signatures of the two clerks before it

Banks-Is that so? Bridges-Yes. What good would the balot be without those signatures? Banks-Well, I didn't know that. Well,

I would just have to wait until the ballot was fixed up, that's all. I understand now. Let's walk out and have a cigar. Bridges-Well, I thought those people, in order to show good faith in me, that they was going to deliver half of the goods when made the agreement, and the other half when the ballot was delivered. Banks-Well, I told them-I says: "I will make a proposition: I will tend to my business."

So, instead of going to the cld man, I goes to Polster.

He says: "I will tell you what you do, you take this $50."

He is a —— nigger

hater. . . I will be there with $50, and I will have as much as a couple of hundred dollars in my pocket. Bridges-Well, I tell you, that is an easy way of picking up money. I guess he is careful of the parties that he is dealing with; that they are safe; but at the same time those are pretty long chances. It is not less than two years and not more than ten, and disfranchised for an indeterminate period-that would be not less than Banks-I know that is a fact. I know that, but I have been taking those chances all my life. * * If I didn't think that I could put all the confidence possible in you, I would not have approached you. Now, I say this: Nobody needs to know anything about this business except you and I. Now, I am trying to go to work and place myself in a position with you, as white people do with one another. Bridges-Well, now, that is all right. I am going from here, now, over into your neighborhood; it would not be the discreet thing, understand, for me to walk out of here and take a cigar with you Banks-I understand, and I don't want you to walk out with me. Here, get yourself a quarter's worth of cigars. I don't want you to go out with me. I will go one away and you need not come and peek out after me, either. Bridges-Now, I want to see you to-night again, and if you think it will be safe. will come over to your place. I was scared to death last night when we were sitting in there talking, but you said they would not bother you.

Banks-There won't a policeman come in my house. Don't you be afraid of that. Bridges-I wonder if that fellow that has done business before, on the board, is on the board this time? If he is, he will be expecting to be approached again. Banks-Well, I will tell you, Wes, there no doubt but that there ain't one of that he has no other reason for advising them out does business. Bridges-Well, I never done a dollar's This statement was voluntarily signed worth of business, and I never had a man by the following employes of the comapproach me before you approached me. You are the first man that ever approached me in that way. * * * There is Bill Kis- Robert Carlisle, Arthur Rosemeyer, J. M sel and a host of others that Tom puts Bartley, A. Schuessler, Henry Vehling, F. his confidence in, you know, but I was Marschke, G. W. Allen, D. F. Shelton surprised that they had you over there, J. Barker, R. C. Nessler, William Dinker, instead of working in the other ward. Banks-Well, you know, they hollered for H. Weldenhaupt, J. Jackson, Joe Born, work out here * * * Carpenter made affidavit that the foregoing is a true statement of the conversation as he heard it. A PREPOSTEROUS CLAIM.

The Democrats are trying to give the idea that Banks's negotiations were for the purpose of trapping Republicans, and that the arrest of Banks will result in a flasco of the most ridiculous nature.

It was claimed that Banks went to Ernest Kuester, John Harrison. Bridges's place under instructions, but the nature of the proceedings and the attempted explanations do not fit well together. The scheme showed the intention of the Democrats to secure the ballot, together with others from different precincts, after which they would be taken out, marked, and then given to men who had sold their votes, who were to deposit the ballot given them, and give to those who had given them the marked ballot the one secured from the clerks of election when they went in to vote, and this one in turn marked for Democratic candidates and given out again. The scheme is known among politicians as the "endless chain" scheme of purchasing votes. Banks is a notorious character, and is known as one of Mayor Taggart's henchmen.

BEN OLIVER'S ARREST.

A Depraved Youngster, Who Was Not Much Concerned.

Little Ben Oliver, of whom the police depravity are told than of any other rested last night for the theft of a bicycle. of his arrest, and amused the crowd, which gathered at Illinois and Market streets, for twenty minutes, while waiting for the patrol wagon. Ben showed the true spirit of a Democratic politician. A man who knew him walked up and said: "What have they got you for, Ben?' "Stole a wheel." "What are you going to do with it?" "Haint goin' to do nothin'. Can't yer see the bike cops got me?"

Some one in the crowd suggested he was being locked up so that he could not vote. Ben took the cue, grasping the situation better than many older ones, and replied: "Guess I'll vote all right. I'm for

A liberal share of your fire insurance cught to be given to the Indianapolis Fire Insurance Company, a safe, sound and successful company, organized with home capital by Indiana men, who will give your business prompt attention. Office, No. 148 the returns to the bureau headquarters as nothing positively done until the very fin- FINE WEATHER IS PREDICTED FOR THE ELECTION TO-DAY.

> Chairman Hernly Goes Home to Vote and Will Return to the City To-Day.

A GREAT VICTORY

HE THINKS IT WILL BE A REPUB-LICAN LANDSLIDE.

J. Frank Hanly Is Sure of Victory-Catholies for McKinley-Political Gossip.

The sun promises to smile on the Republicans of Indiana to-day. The chief of the weather bureau in the Majestic building has predicted that the skies will be clear and this is what the Republicans have been hoping for. There appeared to be no doubt in the minds of the Republican leaders in this city last night of the result in Indiana and in fact the country at large. Chairman Hernly, of the State committee, went to New Castle yesterday eventhat I can get to work with it right away. I ing and after casting his ballot to-day, he

Before going away yesterday Mr. Hernly gave his final estimate of the probable re-Bridges-They don't care if I drop dead sult: "It is a landslide; we will elect eleven congressmen sure, and will carry the State Banks-No; you see, I can go to work by not less than 40,000 and will elect the and say that I stole this ballot. * * I entire State and national tickets and will know how much money. * * Now, to carry both branches of the Legislature. I want to congratulate the Republicans in advance on the re-election of McKinley and the continuation of good times for four years, which means plenty to the laboring people and in fact to all of our citizens.' Joseph B. Kealing, Seventh district committeeman, expressed himself as being confident of Republican success. "We wil carry the State by a larger plurality than in 1896," said Mr. Kealing yesterday afternoon, "and we will elect not less than sixty-three members of the House of Representatives and not less than thirty members of the State Senate. McKinley will carry Marion county by 5,000 or more and the whole county ticket will be elected. I believe the Seventh district will give Representative Overstreet a plurality of nearly

One of the most confident of the campaigners who called at State committee headquarters yesterday was J. Frank Hanly, who has been doing a great deal of hard work over the State. He made this statement yesterday: "I have made sixty odd speeches in the State and have been in two-thirds of the counties, speaking thing of the local situation in each county Twenty thousand plurality for McKinley would not be surprised to see it doubled Our people are organized and will be at the campaign that will favor the Republicans I think is the silent vote that no man ever measures until after the election. That vote will be cast for McKinley by farmers and business men throughout the State." A prominent Republican politician State committee headquarters made the statement yesterday that he believed the Republican national ticket will get a big vote from the Catholics of the country. "The Catholic clergy," he said, "feels that the present administration is committed to the preservation of Catholic Church property throughout the Philippine islands. change in administration would subject this property to pillage and destruction and they propose to do what they can to protect this property through the re-election of

McKinley. THERE WAS NO COERCION.

Statement Prepared by Employes of Rockwood Manufacturing Company. The other day an article appeared in the Sentinel attempting to prove that the proprietor of the Rockwood Manufacturing Company was endeavoring to coerce his men to vote the Republican ticket Yesterday the following was prepared by employes of the Rockwood Manufacturing Company: "We, the undersigned, employes of the Rockwood Manufacturing Company, acknowledge the receipt of the letter, and wish to refute the charge that our employers are endeavoring to coerce or intimidate us. We firmly believe that Mr. Rockwood is interested only in continuing the present favorable trade conditions, and

us as he did. J. O. Deeds, J. C. McIlvaine, E. L. Strong

O. Jackson, John Ott, John Schneider me to work out here; I didn't want to C. T. Hoover, John Sechrist, Thomas Marcomfort and interest. key, Gus Lipp, W. H. Morris, George T Dietz, Charles Wamsley, Benjamin Chadwick, John Smith, G. Round, J. O. Riggs, J. Tucker, James Ritchie, J. E. Mears, E. T. Pedlow, E. Traub, Albert Dunn, Peter Schuster, Harry Clements, John Robinson John Newby, C. Hillman, Louis Hoffman, Leary, W. Marschke, Emmett Jones, M. E. Clark, A. Johnson, D. Leary, H. Sheets, Charles Leary, George Noerr, J. Jones, J. H. Wittz, N. Gold, Conrad Hoover, H. Lyke, F. Grieshaber, Fred B. Wiles, DETECTIVES EMPLOYED.

Republican County Committee Will

Watch Suspected Persons The Republican county committee has employed detectives to watch some men who have been suspected of doing dirty work at the poils, and more particularly at the last city election. It is announced that m. These will be the turns are all in. At the last city election it is claimed that in the third precinct of the Tenth ward the Democratic poll book was stuffed and thirty-nine fraudulent committee says that these "manipulators," having discovered that they are being watched, are trying to make a show of virtuous indignation, and think to create a diversion by raising the cry of "stop thief. It is claimed that some of the men who have done this disreputable work for the Democrats, and who are active in this election, are men who run gambling houses and policy shops. It is charged that the immunity they receive is for services ren-

OPENING OF POLLS.

They Will Be Open from 6 A. M. Until 6 P. M.

Monument Place.

The joint newspaper bureau for the colection of election returns will have headquarters to-night at 32 Monument Place. Election officers are requested to send

The polls will be open to-day from o'clock in the morning until 6 o'clock this evening. The election laws provide that no ballot can be received before the inspector announces that the polls are open. The polls must be kept continuously open from 6. a. m. to 6 p. m., unless after 4 p. get it, whether you ask questions or not. for fifteen minutes, the election board may, by unanimous consent of all its members, close the polls.

Diamonds, Fine Watches, Jewelry, ELECTION NEWS BUREAU. The Returns Will Be Received at 32

pers have adopted this plan in order to furnish their patrons with redable election news promptly. Each newspaper will have a corps of men at the headquarters to-night to receive and tabulate the returns. In this enterprise the newspapers require the co-operation of the election officers. The bureau's plan has been indersed by both committees. Governor Receives Telegram.

Governor Mount said yesterday he had no reason to change his estimate given a week ago, that McKinley will carry the State by 25,000 votes. The Governor has made about fifty speeches in Indiana this campaign, finishing Saturday night. He said yesterday he would go to the polls early this morning to vote. In reply to his prediction Governor Mount yesterday announced the receipt of a telegram from George B. Cortelyou, President McKinley's secretary: "Hon. James A. Mount, Governor, Indianapolis, Ind .: "The President is much gratified by your telegram, and appreciates your thoughtfulness in the matter. "GEORGE B. CORTELYOU,

A Sorry Spectacle.

Not to be outdone by the Republicans, the Democrats made a closing demonstration last night with a street parade over practically the same line of march used by the Republicans in the afternoon. Comparatively it was a sorry spectacle, for despite the fact that the Liberty Drum Corps beat a rally for more than an hour before the parade, there were less than 200 who were finally mustered into the line of march. It was the intention to have speakers drop out of the parade and adiress street-corner audiences, but the occasion was rare when enough people had congregated on the corners to constitute a crowd. Those who marched in the procession were members of the Gray Club and Cleveland Club,

Many Coming Home to Vote. All day yesterday the officials of the different railroads were busily engaged tabulating the number of voters who will arrive here to vote. These men have been supplied with transportation by the leaders of both parties which call for a reknow how much money. * * Now, to make a long story short, I will come prepared to do business on the morning of election—to-morrow morning. You know conditions as they exist at present, and I roads will bring into this city. Up to noon yesterday an approximate of the total certificates received placed the number at five thousand.

> Will Go to Polls in a Body. The permanent guests of the Hotel English yesterday circulated the following: "We, the undersigned, agree to meet at the Hotel English at 9 a. m. Tuesday, Nov. 6 to proceed in a body to the polls to vote for McKinley and Roosevelt."
>
> At 6 o'clock last evening forty men had signed the paper. It is said there are seventy-five votes in the hotel, and that only two will be for Bryan. Twenty-One Republican Votes. John M. Hill, eighty-two years old, whose postoffice address is Noblesville, Ind., born in Randolph county, North Carolina, and who has been a resident of the State of Indiana forty-seven years, is the father of sixteen sons and four daughters, having four sons-in-law, who will all vote probably to 100,000 people in all. I have for Major McKinley, making twenty-one tried to be conservative and to learn some votes in the family. In 1862 he enlisted in the Seventy-ninth Indiana. This is con> sidered a record-breaker. McKinley's Election Conceded.

A telegram received last night from New York stated that the Evening Journal, Bryan's chief organ, yesterday evening practically conceded the election of McKinley by printing the following in the last column on the second page: "Four years ago on election night the Journal beat the entire country with the news of William McKinley's election. This year the Jour-nal expects history to repeat itself."

Francis T. Hord for McKinley. Francis T. Hord, prominently identified with the Gold Democratic party, yesterday surprised his friends by openly declaring his intention of voting for McKinley to-day. He gave as his reason for his change that after listening to the radical utterances of Mr. Bryan he became disgusted with popocratic ideas and will support

Kentucky Is Republican. S. A. Shepard, of Louisville, Ky., assistant secretary of the Republican campaign committee of Kentucky, in a letter to his brother Jefferson, in this city, yesterday, said the Democrats conceded Louisville to the Republicans by 6,000. He also said that Yerkes will receive a plurality of from 15,000 to 25,000.

An Investigation Made. Democrats has made an investigation, and is unable to discover who issued the circular announcing that Debs had withdrawn as the presidential candidate of the Social Democratic party. The executive board estimates that the strength of the party in Indiana is over 12,000 votes.

Columbia Club's Plans. The Columbia Club has arranged to have telegraph operator, telephone connections, messenger service with the local press bureau and all other facilities for gathering news of election returns to-day and to-night, for the benefit of its members. Everything will be provided for their

A Drugged Whisky Scheme. A Republican precinct committeeman informed the Journal last night that he had incovered a scheme of Democrats to attempt to get Republicans in his precinct to-day to drink drugged whisky. The scheme is to drug the men so that they will be unable to get to the polls.

Seaton, the Hatter,

Sells the "Dunlap hats."

BIG FOUR EXCURSIONS.

Sunday, Nov. 11, to Union City. Wa bash and Way Points. $1.00 or less round trip. Special train leaves Indianapolis 7:45 a. m. To LAWRENCEBURG, AURORA, way points. $1.00 or less round trip. Special train leaves Indianapolis 7:30 a

LAST EXCURSIONS to these points this season. California.

Four personally conducted tourist cars via Illinois Central Railroad, for San Francisco and other California points every week. For information write to R. H FOWLER, T. P. A., I. C. R. R., Louis-

Feed your horse JANES'S Dustless Oats New Century Caligraph, Ball Bearing Dens more and Yost typewriters represent in varie AND SUPPLIES COMPANY, Monument place and East Market. Phone 1549.

The Truth, the Plain Truth, And a Good Deal of It.

Patronize American goods, especially when you know they are the best, like Cook's Imperial Extra Dry Champagne.

This is what we give you when you ask mestions. It has always been our practice. Now it has become a habit. You Our goods are distinctly of the first and finest quality, and our prices are lowest when quality is considered.

Solid Sterling Silver . . . . .

Indiana's Leading Jewelers.

..COMPLETE..

Election Returns

Can be had over the lines of the...

New Telephone Co

BY SUBSCRIBERS

Calling for Information Desk

We will have the most complete returns given out in Indianapolis.

The Journal's Election News!

The Journal will issue extra editions to catch all trains up to noon Wednesday, November 7, and to 8:30 a. m. Thursday, November 8, as follows:

First Edition for trains leaving about midnight, Tuesday and Wednesday, and for local street sales. Second Edition for trains leaving about 3:30 a.

m. to 4:30 a. m.

Third Edition for trains leaving about 7 a. m. to 8 a. m. and for local street sales. Fourth Edition for trains leaving about 11 a. m.

to 12 noon and for local street sales. Complete election returns will be displayed by stereopti-con in front of THE JOURNAL building during Tuesday evening, and they will be continued Wednesday evening if it be necessary. The facilities of The Journal for the collection and presentation of the news are unsurpassed. To the service of the Associated Press, with all its great resources, will be added the bulletins of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Companies and the Long Distance Telephone Company and the dispatches of our special correspondents all over our field. This will make up a report that will be as perfect as modern enterprise can produce.

Stereopticon Election Returns

---BY---Telephone Co.

Will be given on North Meridian St., in front

ELECTION NIGHT!

of the Marion Club Building

For prompt bulletins no better place can be found about the city. Information gathered by Central Union and Long Distance Telephone Cos.

From all parts of the United States.

INDIANAPOLIS PATTON BROS. FULL WEIGHT 59 CIGAR DISTRIBUTER SOLE

A.B. MEYER&CO. 19 North Pennsylvania St.

THE TAYLOR CARPET CO. 26 and 28 W. Wash. St.

A BEAUTIFUL BATHTUB Is the VISI-BLE evidence of a modern NVISIBLE

29-33 East Ohio Street.

room is likely to prove more of an injury than a benefit. Nothing is so conducive to the health of the amily as a bathroom if in perfect condition; but if otherwise, nothing is more destructive

Established 1884. C. ANESHAENSEL & CO.

224-228 WEST MARYLAND STREET.

.. Armstrong Laundry...

TELEPHONES 808.

CALL ANY PART CITY.

A Trial Means Your Future Trade

BERNLOEHR'S 139 East Washington St.

STENCILS AND SEALS.

FO. MAYER, SEALS, TEL 1386. 15 EMERIDIAN ST GROUND PLACE